AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES COURTER

In accordance with ¶ 35 and footnote 112 of the Third Order on Reconsideration and Second Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (released March 17, 2003) in the above-mentioned proceeding, James Courter, Vice Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of IDT Corporation ("IDT"), hereby submits the enclosed Affidavit on behalf of IDT. The Affidavit sets forth that on certain calls, due to technical limitations, the sales agents for IDT are unable to "drop off" a sales call after initiating a three way conference call or a call through an automated verification system for the purpose of confirming a consumer's request to switch to IDT for presubscribed telecommunications service.

Accordingly, to the degree that such technical limitations exist, IDT requests an exemption for two years from the date this Affidavit is received by the Commission from the Commission's rules and/or policies that would otherwise require IDT's sales agents to "drop off" a sales call after initiating a three way conference call or a call through an automated verification system for the purpose of confirming a consumer's request to switch to IDT for presubscribed telecommunications service. IDT will continue to abide by all other applicable rules and/or policies.

If, prior to the termination of the aforementioned two year period, IDT implements the technology that eliminates the existing limitations, the company shall so inform the Commission and request that the Commission eliminate IDT's exemption. If, at the end of the two year period, IDT continues to be unable to "drop off" certain sales calls due to a technical limitation, IDT will recertify in accordance with ¶ 35 of the Third Order on Reconsideration and Second Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the above-mentioned proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,
